Acknowledgments

Douglas P. Bartner, who recently retired from his position as Partner at Shearman & Sterling LLP, was the author of earlier editions of this book, and without his prior work this edition of book would not have been possible. Doug’s dedication, wisdom, insights, and mentoring over the years are gratefully acknowledged by the author. The publication of this book also would not have been possible without the extraordinary commitment of Susan Fennessey, former Counsel at Shearman & Sterling LLP and currently General Counsel at Mesabi Metallics Company LLC, who served as a co-author of early editions of this book.

The author also would like to acknowledge the important contribution of Ronni Arnold, the Knowledge Management Attorney for the Financial Restructuring & Insolvency Group of Shearman & Sterling LLP. Ronni’s careful review and editing was invaluable, and her discipline and organization were essential, to completing this project.

The author also is grateful for the assistance and contribution of a number of current and former lawyers at Shearman & Sterling LLP who have volunteered their valuable time, including nights and weekends, to work on aspects of this book: John Anzelc, Anne Bahr, Roger Baneman, Robert Britton, Stacey Corr-Irvine, Alyssa Cowley, Milana Dabran, Edmund Emrich, Richard Facundo, Jill Frizzley, Shekhar Kumar, Kerry Neligan, Solomon Noh, Leticia Olivera, James Park, Ned Schodek, Sayuri Shimoda, Bradley Simon, David Winterton, Veronica Wissel, Doreen Xia, as well as Barbara Kraus, the Global Business Director—Finance, and retired senior legal assistant Jérôme Mounier.

Finally, the author would like to thank Christian Sae for his valuable assistance in completing the 2019 edition of this book.
